New Stores

Bridgford Interiors Ltd continues its long association with new store fit-outs with new High Street stores in prime locations across the UK for a new entrant - Hotel Chocolat in 2005. Hotel Chocolat offers the experience of real chocolate - freshly made with authentic ingredients and the ability to attend sampling sessions. Perfect for gifts or pure indulgence.

Summary of Sector

- High street retail is the every day arena for the general public, high streets allow the full spectrum of retailers to be represented - sometimes with rivals located adjacent to each other.
- Units are typically between 500 to 3000sq.ft. However certain retailers require far in excess of this.
- Typically the fit out is to a high standard with a requirement for design input to attract customers.
- Works are generally undertaken in older units that need refurbishment and modernisation prior to fit out.
