Leading luxury electric car company Tesla has decided to put Knutsford firmly on the map for eco-drivers by choosing to open its third UK showroom in the centre of the town.

Open in December 2014, the new-look 3,000ft² showroom is home to the latest range of Tesla's premium zero emissions cars, ranging in price from around £50,000 to £70,000. The store, which will also house a service centre and specially designed fast charging points.

Tesla has more than 125 stores worldwide and this store will be the company's third UK showroom after London and Birmingham.
