Turnbull & Asser

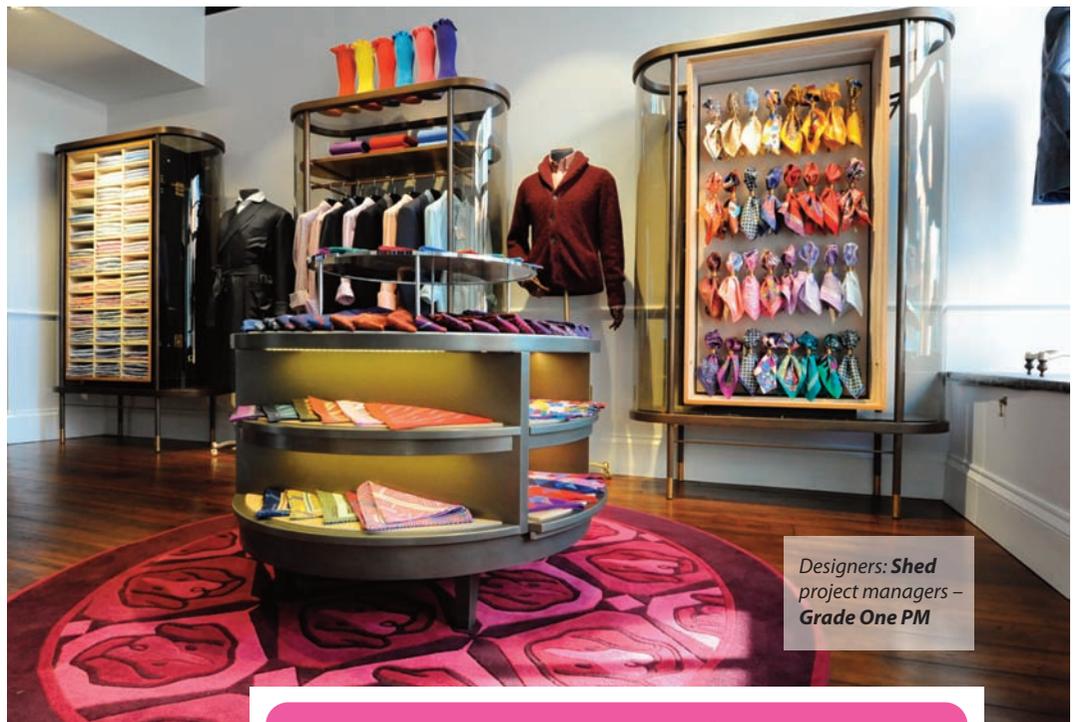

Bridgford Interiors help Turnbull & Asser with their new Mayfair store.

Turnbull & Asser, the Royal Warrant shirt-maker and dresser of some of the worlds most eminent men since 1885, is delighted to announce the opening of a new store on 4 Davies Street in the heart of Mayfair.

The new store will be set over two floors; the 1000 sq ft store will house Turnbull & Asser's ready-to-wear collection as well as their renowned bespoke service. Designed by acclaimed interiors architects Shed, the building will mirror the exemplary British brands new design studio and showroom in South Street. The muted shades a perfect backdrop to showcase the classic styles. The designer has retained the ambience and style of this quintessential British brand.

The new addition to the group of London stores will sit alongside the Bury Street bespoke store and Jermyn Street ready-to-wear store in London's St James. International expansion is also planned for 2015 with a second store in New York, opening in the World Trade Centre.

2015 is an exciting year for the company as it also marks Turnbull & Asser's 130th anniversary. As a renowned authority in gentleman's dressing, this leading shirt and tie makers brand is stronger than ever. Looking to the future the brand announces the expansion of their Gloucester work rooms; this is to meet the rise in demand for the brands esteemed bespoke and ready-to-wear shirts.
